

It has been a very busy Spring Term and start to the Summer Term for the Scarborough Teaching Alliance with training events, guest speakers and a wide range of local networks both new and old.

In this newsletter, we will highlight the successes of the Spring Term and look forward to the events and CPD opportunities available in the Summer Term and beyond.

If you would like more details on all that we offer, please visit our website at www.scarboroughteachingalliance.co.uk

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE SPRING TERM

The latest inspirational speaker to visit the Yorkshire Coast was Tom Sherrington who delivered a keynote address to colleagues from local primary and secondary schools. Tom was well received by attendees and colleagues enjoyed receiving a copy of his book the Learning Rainforest to take away.

Anna Ephgrave's "Planning in the Moment" session brought together Early Years practitioners from the local area for a day of inspiring training.

"From reading several of Anna's book, it was such an exciting opportunity to meet her. She is so passionate about children and their learning experiences that this has refreshed my own outlook within our setting. The children are now encouraged to develop their independence and risk taking. We as adults have also been reassessing our role within play." - Attendee

- ⇒ The Accelerate Programme, in partnership with Education Development Trust and the Chartered College of Teaching, has proved popular. We are really excited to be able to support this 4-term programme for local Early Career Teachers.
- ⇒ The Secondary Maths Network took place at Scarborough Sixth Form College with 25 local maths teachers joining together to collaborate and share ideas.

New! - The Research and Professional Development Library

The Scarborough Teaching Alliance is delighted to offer its members access to the new Research and Professional Development Library based at Newby and Scalby Primary School in the Alliance Training Hub.

The aim of this library is to provide local colleagues with an opportunity to borrow a selection of texts recommended by peers to support their professional learning.

To find out more information about how the library works and the current catalogue, please visit the website at www.scarborougteachingalliance.co.uk/professional-development/library/ or email Charlotte Thickett at c.thickett@scalbyschool.org.uk

“Thanks to the Scarborough Teaching Alliance lending library I have been able to determine whether or not Mary Myatt's book is useful to us in developing our curriculum before I recommend it to others. It is and I would!”
